Sirius Named Central Partner of the Year by NetApp

Sirius recognized as Central Partner of the Year for the second consecutive year

San Antonio, TX – 11 July, 2018 – Sirius Computer Solutions, Inc. \(Sirius\), a leading national IT solutions integrator, has been named NetApp Central Partner of the Year for its overall FY18 revenue, year over year growth, key account wins and participation in regional partnership activities.

The 2018 Americas Partner Awards were announced on stage at NetApp's inaugural Channel Connect Conference (C3), in Scottsdale, Arizona, where strategic partner executives from across the Americas region gathered to hear about NetApp's strategic vision and engage with NetApp executives.

Sirius is a NetApp Star Partner and boasts a top 10 ranking in national and healthcare partner status with NetApp. As a result of this success, Sirius is one of a select group of partners to be included in NetApp's National Partner Program. With 122 NetApp accreditations and 56 certifications, Sirius' dedicated teams of solution architects and IT consultants deliver deep technical knowledge and expertise.

"We are honored to be recognized by NetApp as its Central Partner of the Year for the second year in a row," said Darren Gourley, vice president of infrastructure solutions for Sirius. "This award solidifies our standing with NetApp as a top-ranked partner and is a celebration of our continued growth in partnership."

"The Channel Partners recognized today have gone above and beyond to support our joint customers in digital transformation," said Jeff McCullough, vice president, Channel Sales, NetApp. "It's my honor to congratulate Sirius on being named Central Partner of the Year. NetApp looks forward to continuing to work with you to support our joint customers in their digital transformation."
